Moskow, June 18.

SOme days ſince we received Advice, that the Turks and the Tartars advanced towards the Nieper, with deſign to paſs it, and to attack the City of Kievia. Though at the ſame time we are told, from other hands, that the Turks are deſirous to make Peace with the Czar; intending to employ their Arms the next Spring in Hungary, or as others ſay, againſt the Poles. The Czar has changed his Reſolution of ſending an Ambaſſador to France.

Warſaw, July 8. The Poles begin to grow jealous of the Moſcovites, who, th y ſuſpect, are Treating with the Turks, and that a Peace being made between them, the War will be turned againſt this Kingdom. From the Frontiers we have an Account, that a Turkiſh Chiaus was arrived there, that he was in few days to have Audience of the General: and that his errand was to let him know, the Grand Signiors intentions in the matter of the Limits.

Naples, July 9. An Order, which came from the Court at Madrid, has been publiſhed here, Requiring all Perſons, that have any Publick Employments, to wear the Spaniſh Habit, which has been occaſioned by their having of late affected the French Faſhion. The intended Levies are not yet begun. The Preparations of the Turks, who are fitting out a great number of Gallies, with which it's ſaid, ſeveral Men of War of Barbary are to joyn, keep us in an Allarm; but we are more particularly apprehenſive for Sicily, where, it's ſaid, the Diſcontents are great: but theſe are fears we have been often affrighted with; and we hope they are now as groundleſs as thoſe we have frequently been heretofore in, upon like Reports of the Deſigns of the Turks.

Genoua July 9, The 28th paſt arrived here, Twelve French Gallies, under the Command of the Chevalier de Nouailles, and were received with the Salutes and Reſpects, uſual on the like occaſions. Some days ſince likewiſe arrived in this Port five Dutch Merchant Ships, with a man of War their Convoy from Spain. And about the ſame time, ſailed from hence another Convoy of that Nation for Spain.

Leghorne, July 9. Three or four days ſince ſeveral French men of War, Commanded by the Sieur du Queſne, arrived in the Canal of Piombino; and preſently after, ſent aſhore to the Officers of the Cuſtoms, to demand reſtitution of ſeveral French Barks, which they had cauſed to be ſeized letting them at the ſame time know, that if they refuſed it, he would right himſelf. Upon which, the ſaid Officers of the Cuſtomes, having conſulted with the Governor, they reſolved to give the Sieur du Queſne ſatisfaction; and agreed to reimburſe the value of the ſaid Barks, and the Merchandizes laden in them, which they had diſpoſed of.

Madrid, July 11. The Prince of Parma is making the neceſſary Preparations for his Journey to Flanders, which he intends to take by the way of France, and therefore has ſent a Gentleman to that Court, to deſire the Kings Paſsport. The Marriage between Don Pedro d'Arragon, and the Daughter of the Duke de Medina Celi is concluded. The King has ſent Orders to Cadiz for the departure of the New-Spain Fleet, on which the Marquis de la Laguna, Viceroy of Mexico will Embarque.

Turin, July 14. The differences between this State, and that of Milan, concerning the Limits, are not yet determined, but rather new cauſe of Diſpute ariſes daily. We are told, that endeavors are ſtill uſing to make a Marriage between our Duke, and the Archdutcheſs of Auſtria; but according to all appearance, they will prove unſucceſsful. From Spain we have Advice, that the King is reſolved by no means, to quit the Title of Burgundy.

Strasburg, July 22. Hardly a day paſſes, but different Reports are ſpread abroad, concerning the Deſigns of the French; one while we are told, that the Mareſchal de Crequi is coming into theſe parts, to Command an Army of 30000 Men; and then again it is ſaid, that the Cavalry and Dragoons that are at preſent in Alſace, are ordered to march towards the Saar, and that they are to be employed on that ſide; amidſt this variety of Advices, all we can write with certainty is, that Monſieur de Monclar continues Encamped near Landaw, and that he has been lately to viſit the Plains of Candell and Lauterbourg, as if he intended to mark out a Camp there. That the French have lately poſſeſſed themſelves of the Caſtles of Oberſtein and Veldents on the Moſelle. And that the Chamber of Metz has ſummoned all the Places on that River, which were poſſeſſed by the old Duke of Lorrain, and at preſent belong to the Prince of Vaudemont, to do Hommage to the French King, and to that end to ſend their Deputies to Metz, againſt the 20th of the next month.

Cologne, July 26. The Proceedings of the French do daily more and more diſquiet the Princes of the Empire, who carry their Complaints to the States Aſſembled at Ratisbonne, and they are Debating what to reſolve upon them.

Hague, July 31. The States of Holland will Adjourn the next week for ſome time, when this place is like to be very empty, for the Prince of Orange intends to go and Hunt in Gelderland, or as ſome ſay, in Lunenburg. From Flanders we have an Account, that the French King was come to Dunkirk, , and that he had cauſed an Order to be
